EMPLOYMENT HISTORY

Year Of Expreience	10
---------------------------	----

Background	I am a technically skilled and highly motivated professional with a strong background in plumbing installation, water supply systems, sanitation, and vocational training. I am particularly good at translating practical, hands-on experience into structured learning, problem-solving on construction sites, and training others using clear, competency-based methods. I also have strengths in project coordination, technical documentation, and aligning local practices with international standards. At present, I Run Plumbing Trading Center Bamenda, where I provide practical plumbing services and train aspiring technicians in installation, maintenance, and safety practices. Alongside this, I am actively involved in developing academic and technical project proposals, improving my professional profile for international opportunities, and engaging with global best practices in sustainable construction and skills development. My current focus is on expanding my impact through education, innovation, and internationally aligned technical training.
