Background	I am an enthusiastic marketing professional with a keen interest in international business and finance. I hold a Bachelor's degree in Marketing Management from Gambella University, which has laid the foundation for my career in the banking sector. My work experience spans several roles within Awash Bank S.C, where I currently serve as a Regional Digital Banking Officer II. In this position, I focus on administering and supporting digital communication strategies to ensure that both employees and customers have timely access to essential information. I excel in customer service and communication, often going the extra mile to resolve customer issues and enhance their overall experience. This has allowed me to develop strong interpersonal skills, enabling me to effectively engage with diverse client bases. Additionally, my previous role as a Customer Service Officer has solidified my problem-solving abilities and organizational capabilities, ensuring I can handle multiple tasks efficiently while maintaining high service standards. Presently, I am also working as a Trade Finance Consultant at Euro Exim Bank, where I advise clients on financing international trade transactions. This role has further expanded my understanding of global markets, regulatory frameworks, and the complexities involved in executing secure and successful transactions. I find great satisfaction in helping businesses navigate the intricacies of international trade, and I continuously seek opportunities to enhance my expertise in this field. Overall, I am passionate about leveraging my skills in digital banking, customer service, and international finance to contribute significantly to the organizations I am part of. I am currently looking to deepen my knowledge through further education and practical experiences to better equip myself for future challenges in the dynamic world of international business.
