EMPLOYMENT HISTORY

Year Of Expreience One year

Background	Over the past years, I have built a lot of experiences that can benefit tourism and hospitality businesses. But also any Nonprofit organizations. My previous experience as a customer service representative, in addition to my volunteer experience in a non-governmental organization named Greenpeace Africa have provided me substantial skills in communication, leadership, problem solving, organizational skills, teamwork, interpersonal skills, as well as collaborating with people of different backgrounds. My enthusiasm for culture, tourism, leisure and hospitality had led me to pursue a master's degree in tourism and hotel management and currently working in catering as a Barrister lead. By applying my hospitality skills to operational tasks, I create a seamless and enjoyable experience for guests, thereby driving business success through excellent service. Thanks to my actual position I had enquired a strong set of customer-focused skills, POS operations skills, prepared and served organic and non organic food and beverages, adhering to high standards of freshness and safety.
