Background	I have over five years of experience working in housekeeping. Since 2019, I have been employed as a housekeeping staff member at Hotel Annapurna in Kathmandu, where my primary responsibilities include ensuring that rooms and common areas are clean, well-maintained, and prepared for guests. I take pride in providing high-quality service and making sure that guests enjoy a clean and comfortable environment during their stay. My attention to detail and commitment to maintaining cleanliness have been appreciated by both management and guests. Prior to my housekeeping career, I worked as a painter for two years (2017–2019), where I was responsible for painting residential and commercial properties. During that time, I developed a strong work ethic and learned the importance of precision and efficiency. I am dedicated, hardworking, and always ready to improve my skills to contribute to a positive work environment.
