| Background       | Versatile and driven, I combine strong technical expertise, creative design ability, and hands-on agricultural knowledge. In information technology, I excel in computer maintenance, mastering Windows systems and the full Microsoft Office Suite to install, configure, and troubleshoot hardware and software with efficiency and accuracy. My creative side is equally developed: I work confidently with CorelDRAW, Adobe Photoshop, and Filmora, producing high-quality graphics and professional video edits for a variety of communication needs. Alongside my digital skills, I bring valuable experience in agriculture and animal care. I am knowledgeable in cultivating coffee, cocoa, vegetables, and cereals—from soil preparation and planting to harvesting. I also have proven abilities in raising and caring for livestock such as pigs, goats, and poultry, ensuring proper nutrition, hygiene, and overall well-being. This unique blend of technical, artistic, and practical competencies allows me to adapt quickly to different work environments and contribute to projects that require both creativity and precision. Known for reliability, organization, and a strong work ethic, I learn new tools and processes rapidly and consistently deliver high-quality results. My diverse expertise makes me a resourceful professional ready to add value to any team or organization seeking excellence across multiple disciplines. |
