EMPLOYMENT HISTORY

Year Of Exprience 9

Background	I am a dedicated educator and researcher with a strong background in Economics and Development Research. Over the years, I have cultivated skills in teaching, research writing, extension services, and community engagement. I am good at simplifying complex concepts for students, facilitating training and workshops, and organizing academic and socio-cultural activities. My strengths also include research and publication, program evaluation, and mentoring students and youth leaders. At present, I am pursuing my PhD in Development Research Administration at the University of Southeastern Philippines, while continuing to teach at Sultan Kudarat State University where I have been employed for nine years. I am also actively involved in community extension programs, impact assessments, and capacity-building initiatives. In addition, I serve as a consultant, trainer, and choreographer for literary and socio-cultural events, reflecting my versatility and passion for holistic development. Through my work, I strive to contribute to both academic excellence and community empowerment by integrating research, instruction, and extension in meaningful and practical ways.
