EMPLOYMENT HISTORY

Year Of Exprience 6

Background	I hold a degree in Philosophy and have built my career in higher education as a researcher, lecturer, and postgraduate coordinator. Through these roles, I've developed strong skills in critical thinking, academic writing, program coordination, and student mentorship. I'm particularly good at analyzing complex ideas, organizing educational programs, and working collaboratively with diverse teams. In my most recent position, I have been responsible for managing postgraduate programs, supporting academic research, and guiding students through their academic and professional development. I'm passionate about education, personal growth, and systems that support human well-being, and I'm now looking to apply these strengths in a new setting where I can contribute to broader community and organizational goals especially in areas related to behavioral health, ethics, and social development.
