EMPLOYMENT HISTORY

Year Of Exprience 20

|-------------------------|--|
| Background | I am a professional with several years of experience in the logistics and warehouse operations field. Currently, I am working as a Logistics / Operations Supervisor, where I am responsible for managing daily warehouse activities, coordinating inbound and outbound shipments, supervising staff, and ensuring that all operations are carried out efficiently and safely. My current duties include inventory control, goods receiving and dispatch, documentation handling, coordination with transport providers, and maintaining workplace safety standards. I also support management in planning workloads, monitoring performance, and improving operational efficiency. Through this role, I have developed strong skills in teamwork, time management, problem-solving, and compliance with company procedures. In Italy, I intend to work in a similar position within the logistics, warehouse, or industrial sector, where I can apply my practical experience and professional skills. I am willing to work responsibly, follow Italian labor laws, and adapt to the working environment and culture. My goal is to contribute positively to the employer's operations while continuing to grow professionally. I am motivated, hardworking, and committed to performing my duties with honesty and dedication. I believe my experience and skills will allow me to be a valuable employee and support the economic activities of the organization in Italy. |
