Background	My journey as a truck driver has been one of passion and dedication. I am proud of what I have accomplished thus far, yet I am driven by the desire to achieve more. With international experience and a higher income. Moreover, I am motivated by the prospect of earning a higher salary. As I strive to improve my family's quality of life, I recognize the significance of financial stability and the peace of mind it brings. By pursuing international opportunities, I believe I can significantly increase my earning potential, allowing me to provide a better standard of living for my family and contribute toward a more secure retirement.
